

Digital Code Locks

HARDWARE OPTIONS

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Borg 5000 Series

The BL5000 Series is a very versatile range of medium-heavy duty keypads. They are offered in a number of different variants as well as being suitable for retro-fitting third party lockcases. The soft grip 22mm diameter round bar handle is free turning until the correct code is entered in order to alleviate wear as well as preventing misuse and abuse.

Features

- On door code change
- Cycle tested 100k+
- Optional free passage mode
- Free turning handle
- Optional code change disabling plug
- Over 1000+ combinations
- Reversible on site

Variants

- Borg 5000
SSS with round bar handles - to suit Briton mortice lock case
SS with knob both sides
- Borg 5008
Round bar lever keypad with spindles for use with third party panic hardware

Borg 7000 Series

The BL7000 is an established and reliable, heavy duty lock designed for industrial and high traffic areas. It comes with on the door code changing, available from the inside handle as well as a free passage mode function. Available with a wide range of different latch and lockcase options the handle can be modified to make it a knob turn. This keypad is suitable for external situations and boasts a 100,000 cycle test, proving its strength and reliability.

Features

- On door code change
- Cycle tested 100k+
- Optional free passage mode
- Free turning handle
- Non-handed
- Over 2000 combinations

Variants

- Borg 7000
SSS with flat bar handles - to suit Briton mortice lock case

Briton Code Lock

Access is controlled by a 4 to 6 digit code, making it ideal for both single and double doors. The reversible lever allows for easy operation with either left or right-hand use. This push-button code lock offers 2,047 non-sequential code combinations.

Fire-Rated Single Doors

- Compatible only with the Briton 378 single point

Non Fire-Rated Double Doors

- Compatible with all Briton panic hardware except mortice locks.

