

Bespoke High Security Locks

HARDWARE OPTIONS

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

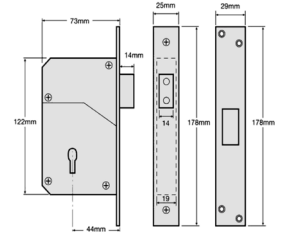

3G135 Detainer Deadlock

The 3G135 is a heavy-duty deadlock used commonly within detaining facilities.

Features

- Keyed to differ.
- Supplied c/w matching escutcheons.
- Not interchangeable with other detainer locks.

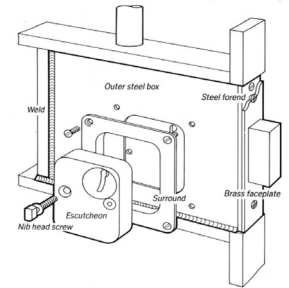

3G112 Morticed Deadlock

The 3G112 is a heavy-duty secure deadlocking lock specifically designed for use in high use applications.

Features

- Low friction key journals.
- Composite deadbolt with carbide anti-cutting rollers and 19mm throw.
- Dedicated key profile.
- Security fixings to prevent unauthorised removal.
- Suitable for internal and external use.
- Operated by a unique key profile.

3J60 Mortice Lock

The 3J60 is a secure mortice lock with formed-up case and welded Forend. Deadbolt operable by key only from either side and latch released only from either side, the lock will re-engage without the use of the handle under light closing force.

Features

- Brass deadbolt with 14mm throw.
- Can be suited as part of a master keyed system.
- Anti-padsaw steel rollers.
- Built in protection against picking, drilling, force and torque attack.
- 5 detainer mechanism with thousands of key combinations.

